A LETTER FROM THE PRODUCER

We are proud to be Long Island's only professional musical theater, able to bring you top notch entertainment right here in Suffolk County. We take pleasure in the continuing challenge of offering the right mix of the latest Broadway releases and favorite classics, staged with the artistic flair you have come to expect from a Gateway show.

Since we are a regional theater, with employees representing four theatrical unions, we have the opportunity to hire actors and staff with Broadway and National Tour experience. We are thrilled to welcome back Elizabeth Stanley, who made her Broadway debut this past season in Company—you may remember her from our 2005 productions of Aida and Sugar. Look for our interview with Elizabeth elsewhere in this playbill.

We hope you enjoy coming to a Broadway caliber version of a show you may have missed on the Great White Way. It is our pleasure and our privilege to bring you an enthralling entertainment experience. We appreciate your continuing patronage.

The "Cirque Dreams" Story

With a background in theater arts and business, Neil Goldberg, a native New Yorker, relocated to South Florida in 1982. Over the next 10 years he created, owned and operated numerous entertainment companies including Parties by Neil, Entertainment Etc., The Zanadu Dance Company and Creative Cloth Designs. Collectively, his organizations formed one of the country's leading theatrical, special events and entertainment production conglomerates. Highlights of Neil's illustrious career include creating productions for 2 Super Bowls, 2 Miss Universe Pageants and the Walt Disney World Company along with thousands of private and high-profile corporate events worldwide. He has worked with renowned figures and significant artists including Baryshnikov, Liza Minnelli, Dick Clark, Diana Ross, Elizabeth Taylor, Gloria Estefan, Bob Hope, Vanessa Williams, Donald Trump and Christopher Reeve on productions for NBC, ABC, CBS, charitable events and entertainment projects throughout the world.

In 1993, Neil created Cirque Productions, the first American company to produce European, theatrical and cirque-style shows for corporate events, theatres and tours. Recognizing his globally inspired imagination and Broadway expertise, the L.A. Times recently bestowed upon him the title of today's leading "theatrical impresario and circus maven." In 1996 after appearing on NBC's Today Show with the cast of "Cirque Ingenieux", Neil was hailed by the New York Daily News as "uniquely ingenious." In the spring of 2006, Neil released his first book entitled "C...through the eyes of Neil Goldberg," a 16 year compilation of cirque artistry, showmanship and costume couture all imagined, designed and produced by Neil and his conglomerate of companies.

The Company

Since 1993 Cirque Productions has created and opened over 12 new original shows performing in theatres, casinos and for tours worldwide. They include "Imaginique" for Busch Gardens Williamsburg, VA - "Cirque Branson" - "Christmas Dreams", a holiday musical stage celebration - "A Day in Life of An Artists" and "Breakthrough", both original off-Broadway musicals. The new "Cirque

Additionally, the company continues designing, producing and directing landmark productions and world class events such as "Symphony & Cirque" performed with the Pittsburgh and Baltimore Symphonies, the 25th Anniversary of the Kennedy Center with Marvin Hamlisch and The National Symphony and the 25th Anniversary event for The National Foundation for Advancement in the Arts, featuring Vanessa Williams, Mikhail Baryshnikov, Placido Domingo, Quincy Jones and Roy Hargrove accompanied by the 97 piece New World Symphony.

Dream Studios

Cirque Productions is headquartered in Dream Studios, a state of the art theatrical production, rehearsal, training, design and wardrobe manufacturing complex. Exclusively contracted performers are selected by talent scouts and relocated to develop their skills at Dream Studios. Under the direction of a staff of coaches, choreographers and artistic directors who travel the world in search of new artists, these young dreamers aspire daily to perform and explore their imaginations. Besides the United States, we have created opportunities for performers from The Mongolian School of Contortion, The Acrobatic Training Center of Beijing China, The Sports Acrobatic Association of Poland, The Moscow Circus, The Russian State College for Variety Arts and more. Today the company has over 100 of the world's most talented and skilled individuals working together in an effort to continue entertaining the world with Cirque Productions' expanding and diverse brand of entertainment.

The Costumes

Cirque Productions' wardrobe department has designed and manufactured all the costumes, hats, wigs and masks that every performer has worn in our shows since 1993. Additionally, the shop has created and supplied costumes for musical theatre, custom designs, special events and more. Along with a multimillion dollar costume inventory, the wardrobe design team has at their disposal thousands of yards of imported fabrics, swarovski crystals, rhinestones, a vast array of trims, notions, unique appliques and accessories from around the world. Hand painting, mask sculpting, heat pressing, body molding and military work are just some of the unique processes besides sewing that occur daily behind the scenes at Cirque Productions' wardrobe and design manufacturing division.*

Neil Goldberg and Cirque Productions are proud supporters of youngARTS, a program of the National Foundation for Advancement in the Arts which supports emerging artists in their educational and professional development.
