How do you destroy a brain tumor without destroying the brain that surrounds it?

YOU COME TO STONY BROOK. Our surgeons work together in teams to remove brain tumors that used to be considered inoperable. How do they do it? First, they're well-versed in the latest technological breakthroughs and surgical techniques. Then, during surgery, they take advantage of advanced diagnostics to pinpoint the harmful tissue. Combine that with unparalleled skill and dedication, and they can remove the most complex tumors while protecting the vital nerves that surround them. This isn't just medicine. This is Stony Brook Medicine.

CABARET

TONY

Willkommen, bienvenue, and welcome to the infamous Kit Kat Klub, where a raucous ensemble takes the stage nightly to tantalize the crowd – and to leave their troubles outside. Featuring some of the most memorable songs in theatre history, including “Cabaret,” “Two Ladies” and “Maybe This Time,” this John Kander, Fred Ebb, and Joe Masteroff Tony-winning masterpiece is well worth revisiting.

JUSTIN WILLIAM SCHAFFNER (Ensemble) was born and raised on Long Island, and is thrilled to be home performing in his own backyard. A Fordham

University Alumni, Justin loves every aspect of performing from having competed as a Latin dancer to performing on stage with the stars and celebrities of Dancing with the Stars in Sway: A Dance Trilogy (featured dancer) to his true roots performing on stage in plays and musicals such as West Side Story (Jet), The Nutcracker (Flutes/ Spanish), Seussical the Musical (Horton) and Holland America Line (Featured Dancer/Aerialist). @justinwschaffner

MARIANNE SCHMIDT (Ensemble) received her B.A. in Theatre from Adelphi University and M.A. from Stony Brook University. She performed in many high school and college productions and has taught preschool in the area for twenty years. She is making her debut at Gateway. She would like to thank Michael for this opportunity, all the fabulous teachers she's had at Gateway, and her loving husband and family.

JOHN SIMPSON (Ensemble) made his acting debut playing Hugo Peabody in Gateway's 1962 Bye Bye Birdie. He came back the following year to play Emmet in Take Her, She's Mine. Lots of TV and radio commercials and shots on The Patty Duke Show followed. He took over the title role in the original off-Broadway production of You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown. John is a member of the

In 2008 he came back to Gateway to play Wiley Post in The Will Rogers Follies and Windy in Show Boat. Gateway is a Magical Place and for John, a trip back in time.

SHAUN-AVERY WILLIAMS

(Ensemble, u/s Bobby, Wailin' Joe, Reverend Hobson) is a dancer from Raleigh, North Carolina who is excited to be making his Gateway

Playhouse debut this season. After obtaining his BFA in dance performance from The University of North Carolina at Greensboro, he went on to perform for Norwegian Cruise Lines abroad the Pride of America as a fierce dancer. Other Shows include: Hairspray, Memphis, Dreamgirls, and The Rocky Horror Show. He would like to thank his mother, all previous dance and voice teachers, Justin Cowan, and Dominick Amendum. Without you, I would not be here. For future updates follow him on Instagram @_shaunavery_

ANTHONY WRIGHT (Ensemble, u/s Gator) is super excited to be making his Gateway debut in a show he adores, and would like to thank the Gateway family for this opportunity! Although he received a dual-degree from Syracuse University in Television/Radio/Film and Spanish, he has always been passionate about performing. Favorite credits include Smokey Joes Cafe (Victor), Rent (Angel), A Chorus Line (Richie) and La Cage aux Folles (Jacob). Follow him @antsinyapantzz for updates! Enjoy the show!

We treat boxers and ballerinas.

We've served this richly diverse region as a community hospital for more than 60 years. And as the area has grown, so have we. But as Long Island doctors, nurses, and healthcare professionals, we've never outgrown our devotion to the health of the community we all call home.

That commitment can be seen in the Knapp Cardiac Care Center, a new surgical pavilion, our unique ER approach, our women's imaging, breast health, orthopedics, bariatrics, and so much more.

So while we've updated our brand to represent our growth and the patient-first changes we've made, there is one thing that will never change: Our commitment to make you feel as comfortable in our home as you do in your own.

Your community. Your hospital.
