THE Gateway

Welcome back!

In the 16 months since our stage was shuttered, Gateway has kept busy and active. Our school for the performing arts was in mid-session when the shutdown occurred, and after finishing with virtual classes, we offered a full schedule of acting and musical theater classes in summer 2020, held outdoors in three large tents. In addition, our popup cinema opened as “The Gateway Drive-In” where we offered over 100 movie titles including recent releases and all-time classics. In October we pioneered a drive-thru Haunted House at Southaven Park, concurrent with Brigands Run, an outdoor walk-thru haunted attraction here in Bellport. Then on New Year’s Eve, we presented The Rat Pack is back - a live performance in Las Vegas, streamed exclusively to our 40’ outdoor screen.

Just recently we launched an outstanding production of A Chorus Line, featuring some of the top talent from Gateway’s performing arts school - and now we are excited to officially begin the 2021 season with Songs For A New World, an appropriate and exciting title as we look forward to what lies ahead. It’s a show about hopes, dreams and aspirations – originally conceived as collection of powerful and thought-provoking songs, Michael Baker and Danny Loftus George have crafted this version in such a way as to convey many of the feelings and emotions we continue to encounter as we navigate our journey through this most recent pandemic, reminding us this is not the first time we have grown through difficult times. You will feel the power of this show as the final note echoes throughout the theater...

The rest of our season has been stretched out to accommodate a later than usual start date. Next up is a return of Million Dollar Quartet, followed by a brand-new production of Newsies at the Patchogue Theatre. Then the shows step aside in October to make way for Gateway’s Haunted Playhouse. After that, the season finishes out with A Gentleman’s Guide to Love and Murder in November and A Holiday Spectacular on Ice in December.

It sure feels great to be back! It’s been so encouraging to see and feel the love and support from our theater family including all our staff, the acting school families, and all our donors, patrons and friends. Without you, we could not have kept moving forward.

So on we go, excited to take on the next adventures!
